Leave a Legacy Month What Will You Give to Those Who Come Next? As a community of faith, DCPC understands well the importance of our sustained, long-term impact on our community. This is why we have an endowment fund and the 1837 Legacy Society to help fund that endowment. The 1837 Legacy Society is a committed group of members and friends who have created provisions in their estate plans or established planned gifts to benefit the mission of DCPC. We would like to welcome new members to the 1837 Legacy Society! You can learn more about the 1837 Legacy Society, including how to join at www.dcpc.org. Our planned giving newsletter at the website has a recap of our 2022 highlights, a reminder of our goals and a list of our current members. Thank you to everyone who has, or is considering, supporting our ministries into the future!

Celebrating a Mission Partner La Escuelita DCPC has had a close relationship with La Escuelita Bilingual Preschool since it was started almost ten years ago as a church outreach program. The science-based preschool's mission is to provide affordable preschool education to at-risk Hispanic children. Entering kindergarten prepared and speaking English benefits them as well as their classmates. It impacts their long-term educational success and trajectory for future success. Go to the WBTV-Charlotte film clip, to see we are achieving something important together!

Giving

Pentecost Offering Today we will receive the Pentecost Offering, a PC(USA) denomination-wide offering which supports ministries with at-risk children, youth, and young adults. 60% of the offering goes to denomination-wide programming including the Presbyterian Youth Triennium. The mission committee has designated Children's Hope Alliance as the recipient of 40% of DCPC's offering. To learn more about Children's Hope Alliance and their great work throughout North Carolina go to <https://www.childrenshopealliance.org/>. Please consider a generous gift.

Davidson College Presbyterian Church is a welcoming, affirming, and inclusive faith community where all are one in Christ. We are a Matthew 25, Earth Care and Stephen Ministry congregation on the corner of campus and community. Our congregation celebrates partnerships in Christ with the Sigona Presbyterian Church in Kikuyu, Kenya; and the Kilambe communities in Jinotega, Nicaragua; and Blythe Elementary School in Huntersville, NC. We are also affiliated with the Covenant Network of Presbyterians Together we seek to grow in witnessing to Christ in a complex world and to learn more about how to respond as disciples to the great needs of the world. Our sanctuary stands on lands once occupied by the indigenous communities of the Catawba people and our first worship space was built with bricks made by enslaved people. We remember them to God as we honor and recognize them in worship.
