Evan Currie, appointed Associate Director of Music and Organist at Myers Park United Methodist Church (2018), is a native of Charlotte, NC.

Prior to Myers Park, Mr. Currie served at Bridgewater United Methodist Church in Bridgewater, NJ, Holy Spirit Roman Catholic Church in Denver, NC, and The Second Presbyterian Church in Greenville, SC.

At Myers Park, Mr. Currie oversees the Myers Park Strings ensemble, directs the successful Midday Music at Myers Park Series with over 30 performances in the past two years, accompanies the Chancel and Chamber Choirs, and directs the Junior Choir, as well as provides music for all three worship services.

Mr. Currie holds a BM from Furman University. He holds a MM in organ performance from the Mason Gross School of the Arts, Rutgers University, and he was awarded the Arthur G. Humphrey Memorial Prize for outstanding work in keyboard performance from MGSA. He has completed additional performance studies at the Accademia d'ell Arte in Arezzo, Italy and served as an intern at The Juilliard School.

Mr. Currie holds multiple awards and honors from several professional organizations. In July 2019, Currie made his national debut as a returning E. Power Biggs Scholar for the Organ Historical Society's national convention in Dallas, Texas. In 2018, he competed in George Mathison Memorial performance competition and was awarded second prize. He also was selected to participate in a master class for Olivier Latry, titular-organist of Notre-Dame of Paris.

In his free time, Evan enjoys running, cooking, hiking, reading, and spending time with his family and niece.

Special thanks to WDAV 89.9 Classical Public Radio for their ongoing help in publicizing this concert series.
