

A SPECIAL COMMUNITY

DCPC gives us the opportunity, unlike anywhere else, to meet, worship, and serve with people of all ages.

Our inter-generational community is a gift we should cherish and support, so that the ministries we all participate in remain vibrant for years to come.

We are fortunate to have such a talented and generous congregation that supports one another, but also inspires and challenges us to deepen our commitment to our faith.

WHO WE ARE

We are a welcoming, affirming and inclusive community of faith, inviting all God's people to join us in following Christ's example of humility, love and service. Our service and love takes the form of nurturing God's children of all ages, supporting one another through life's transitions, and serving neighbors in need, both locally and globally.

"We are the body of Christ – worshiping, learning, serving, loving, giving – seeking to realize God's vision for the world."

Generation to Generation:
2023 Stewardship Season

*WE WILL TELL TO THE COMING GENERATION THE GLORIOUS
DEEDS OF THE LORD, AND GOD'S MIGHT, AND THE WONDERS THAT GOD HAS DONE.*

PSALM 78:4

GOD, WHERE DO YOU WANT ME TO BE IN MY GIVING?

At DCPC, giving to the church is a spiritual act, rooted in our discipleship. We give because God gave to us in Jesus Christ and calls us to live like Christ. Therefore, when we consider our giving to the church, we first pray, "God, where do you want me to be in our giving?" God's answer directs our commitments.

THE GIVING PATH

This stewardship season, each person and family will once again be asked to consider The Giving Path and where God may be leading you. This approach to giving is not merely about funding the church budget. Instead, we are asking each person to consider their financial resources and make prayerful decisions based on spiritual maturity, discipleship in Christ and gratitude to God. We are inviting everyone to consider moving further along The Giving Path as a response to God's Grace in their lives.

OUR PERSPECTIVE

Each of us can name someone who has had a profound impact on our life and faith. As you consider your support for the church this year, think of those people in your life who have not only helped you in your faith journey, but also those who have given you unconditional gifts of love, grace, joy, knowledge, or simple encouragement. We ask you to give generously to DCPC in honor of these important people in your life. You are also invited to hold in prayer those who you want to be blessed by our ministries. By supporting the church and honoring important people in our lives, we will ensure that the missions of the church survive and thrive for generations to come. And most importantly, when we give generously to the church we honor Christ, who reminded us to love Him above all, but also to love and support each other and all in the community and world.
