

God, where do you want me to be in my giving?

At DCPC, giving to the church is a spiritual act, rooted in our discipleship. We give because God gave to us in Jesus Christ and calls us to live like Christ.

Therefore, when we consider our giving to the church, we first pray, "God, where do you want me to be in our giving?" God's answer directs our commitments.

GRACE AND GRATITUDE

Stewardship at Davidson College Presbyterian Church

~ 2022 ~

Yes, everything is for your sake, so that grace, as it extends to more and more people, may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of God.

The Giving Path at DCPC

This stewardship season, each person and family will once again be asked to consider The Giving Path and where

God may be leading you. This approach to giving is not merely about funding the church budget. Instead, we are asking each person to consider their financial resources and make prayerful decisions based on spiritual maturity, discipleship in Christ and gratitude to God. We are inviting everyone to consider moving further along The Giving Path as a response to God's Grace in their lives.

What We Believe

Grace and Gratitude Both words extend from the Greek word charis, which appears in the bible dozens of times, referring to both grace and thankfulness. God's magnificent grace is a gift, freely given to each of us, though not earned or deserved by any of us. In accepting this gift, it becomes our calling to show gratitude by living lives of love and service, which includes supporting God's work through our church with our gifts, financial and otherwise. If we truly believe that God's GRACE provides all we have as a community, as a church and as individuals and families, the natural and appropriate response is to live joyfully and give freely with GRATITUDE!

What We Do

We are a welcoming, affirming and inclusive community of faith, inviting all God's people to join us in following Christ's example of humility, love and service. Our service and love takes the form of nurturing God's children of all ages, supporting one another through life's transitions, and serving neighbors in need, both locally and globally.

"We are the body of Christ – worshiping, learning, serving, loving, giving – seeking to realize God's vision for the world."
