Sunday February 21, 2021 - 9:45 Worship

MATTHEW 25

Davidson College Presbyterian Church is a welcoming, affirming, and inclusive faith community where all are one in Christ. We are an Matthew 25, Earth Care and Stephen Ministry congregation on the corner of campus and community. Our congregation celebrates partnerships in Christ with the Sigona Presbyterian Church in Kikuyu, Kenya; and the Kilambe communities in Jinotega, Nicaragua; and Blythe Elementary School in Huntersville, NC. Together we seek to grow in witnessing to Christ in a complex world and to learn more about how to respond as disciples to the great needs of the world. Our sanctuary stands on lands once occupied by the indigenous communities of the Catawba people and our first worship space was built with bricks made by enslaved people. We remember them to God as we honor and recognize them in worship.

Matthew 25 in the PC(USA): A bold vision and invitation

We are a Matthew 25 church!

Our congregation has accepted the PC(USA)'s invitation to follow Jesus' teachings in Matthew 25:31–46 by becoming active disciples and making a difference in our community and the world.

As part of our Matthew 25 commitment, we pledge to embrace one or more of these three areas of focus:

- Building congregational vitality by deepening and energizing our faith and growing as joyful leaders and disciples actively engaged with our community as we share the gospel of Jesus Christ in word and deed
 - Dismantling structural racism by fearlessly applying our faith to advocate and break down the systems, practices and thinking that underlie discrimination, bias, prejudice and oppression of people of color
 - Eradicating systemic poverty by acting on our beliefs and working to change laws, policies, plans and structures in our society that perpetuate economic exploitation of people who are poor.
- To learn more and for ideas on how to get involved and do your vital part as a member of a Matthew 25 church, please visit pcusa.org/matthew25.

LENT 2021

A PROPHETIC LENT

But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's own people, in order that you may proclaim the mighty acts of the one who called you out of darkness into God's marvelous light.

1 Peter 2:9

Come by the church to pick up your worship stole!

A Prophetic Lent This year DCPC is using the Old Testament texts of the Revised Common Lectionary as the centerpiece of our worship services each Sunday, lifting up the voices of those ancient prophets as we seek God's Word for today. Join us as we celebrate A Prophetic Lent. As a symbol of the ministry to which all of us are called in baptism, come pick up a purple ribbon to wear each week in worship. This will be your Lenten stole. The pastors will be wearing the same ribbons so that we all, together, can show our unity in God's call to be prophetic people. The ribbons will be at the ramp door of the church.

Opening Songs of Worship

Your Grace Is Enough

Great is Your faithfulness O God
You wrestle with the sinner's restless heart
You lead us by still waters into mercy
And nothing can keep us apart

Remember Your people
Remember Your children
Remember Your promise O God

Your grace is enough
Your grace is enough
Your grace is enough for me

Great is Your love and justice God of Jacob
You use the weak to lead the strong
You lead us in the song of Your salvation
And all Your people sing along

Remember Your people
Remember Your children
Remember Your promise O God

Your grace is enough
Your grace is enough
Your grace is enough for me

Remember Your people
Remember Your children
Remember Your promise O God

Your grace is enough
Your grace is enough
Your grace is enough for me

Your grace is enough

Heaven reaches out to us
Your grace is enough for me

Your grace is enough
I'm covered in Your love
Your grace is enough for me for me

Come Now Is the Time to Worship

Come now is the time to worship
Come now is the time to give your heart
Come just as you are to worship
Come just as you are before your God
Come

One day every tongue
Will confess You are God
One day every knee will bow
Still the greatest treasure remains
For those who gladly choose You now

Come now is the time to worship
Come now is the time to give your heart
Come just as you are to worship
Come just as you are before your God
Come

One day every tongue
Will confess You are God
One day every knee will bow
Still the greatest treasure remains
For those who gladly choose You now

One day every tongue
Will confess You are God
One day every knee will bow
Still the greatest treasure remains
For those who gladly choose You now

Come now is the time to worship
Come now is the time to give your heart
Come just as you are to worship
Come just as you are before your God
Come

Call to Worship

Mary and Mur Muchane

- One: Come, you who have been called by God to live as Christ's disciples. Prepare yourself to worship God.
- All: We wear purple in Lent as a sign of our recognition that we need God's grace to live faithfully.
- One: Come, you who have been blessed by Jesus in baptism that you might be a blessing to others. Prepare yourself to worship God.
- All: We wear these ribbons as a sign of being set apart for service as well as for salvation.
- One: Come, you who are a royal priesthood, all you who are part of the Holy Spirit's ministry of love. Prepare yourself to worship God.
- All: Renew us, O God, in service, that our bodies would be more than props for worship clothing. Use us, Lord, use us as you will, for we are yours. Amen.

The glory of these forty days
we celebrate with songs of praise;
for Christ, by whom all things were made,
himself has fasted and has prayed.

Alone and fasting Moses saw the loving God who gave the law;
and to Elijah, fasting, came the steeds and chariots of flame.

So Daniel trained his mystic sight, delivered from the lions' might;
and John, the Bridegroom's friend, became the herald of Messiah's name.

Then grant that we like them be true,

consumed in fast and prayer with you;
our spirits strengthen with your grace,
and give us joy to see your face.

Prayer of Confession

Claire George-Drumheller

One: The prophet' call ring true and echoes the voices of the faithful through the ages. What does the Lord require of us? But to do justice, to love kindness, and to walk humbly with God. Let us walk humbly as we share our unison prayer of confession, followed by a time for silent confession.

All: You call us, O God, to trust in you and to love our neighbors as ourselves. We are blessed to be a blessing. Yet you know, O Lord, that we often fall short of the mark you have set for us. Rather than set apart for service, we often see ourselves set above others. Rather than love others as ourselves, we expect them to love us as much or more than we love ourselves. Rather than trust you, we lean on a lot of earthly things to prop us up: money, influence, possessions and more. The list is long, O God. Forgive us for faltering discipleship. Have mercy on us for seeking to be ministered to more than to be in ministry. Enable us to live into our baptismal calling to love one another as you have loved us.

Time of Silent Confession

Lord, have mercy;
Christ, have mercy;
Lord, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy;
Christ, have mercy;
Lord, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy;
Christ, have mercy;
Lord, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy;

Christ, have mercy;
Lord, have mercy upon us.

Declaration of Forgiveness

One: It is true, we are elected by the grace of God for service as well as for salvation. But do not forget: in that election there is salvation. We can serve because Christ first served us. You are one with God through Jesus and forgiven of all that might keep you apart.

All: God's holy name be praised!

Summary of the Law

One: Freed by God's grace from the fear of not measuring up, we remember how we are called to live. Our Lord Jesus said:

All: You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and first commandment.

One: And a second is like it:

All: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

Prayer for Illumination

All: Come stir the waters once again, O Spirit. Stir us from placidness, Wind on the Sea and prophets' muse. Pick up our heads and perk our ears, that we might see and hear anew, faithful to our calling as your people. Amen.

Sermon

Peter Henry

Great Is Thy Faithfulness

Great is thy faithfulness, O God my Father;
there is no shadow of turning with thee.
Thou changest not; thy compassions they fail not.
As thou hast been thou forever wilt be.

Great is thy faithfulness!

Great is thy faithfulness!

Morning by morning, new mercies I see.
All I have needed thy hand hath provided.
Great is thy faithfulness, Lord unto me!

Summer and winter, and springtime and harvest, sun, moon, and stars in their courses above join with all nature in manifold witness to thy great faithfulness, mercy, and love.

Great is thy faithfulness!
Great is thy faithfulness!
Morning by morning, new mercies I see.
All I have needed thy hand hath provided.
Great is thy faithfulness, Lord unto me!

Pardon for sin and a peace that endureth,
thine own dear presence to cheer and to guide,
strength for today and bright hope for tomorrow:
blessings all mine, with ten thousand beside!

Great is thy faithfulness!
Great is thy faithfulness!
Morning by morning, new mercies I see.
All I have needed thy hand hath provided.
Great is thy faithfulness, Lord unto me!
Great is thy faithfulness, Lord unto me!

Prayers of the People and Lord's Prayer

Claire George-Drumheller

All: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Sending Song

Take My Life

Take my life and let it be consecrated
Lord to Thee
Take my moments and my days
Let them flow in ceaseless praise
Take my hands and let them move
At the impulse of Thy love
Take my feet and let them be
Swift and beautiful for Thee

Take my voice and let me sing
Always only for my King
Take my lips and let them be Filled with messages from Thee
Take my silver and my gold
Not a mite would I withhold
Take my intellect and use
Ev'ry power as You choose

Here am I all of me
Take my life it's all for Thee

Take my will and make it Thine
It shall be no longer mine
Take my heart it is Thine own
It shall be Thy royal throne
Take my love my Lord I pour
At Your feet its treasure store
Take myself and I will be Ever only all for Thee

Here am I all of me
Take my life it's all for Thee

Here am I all of me
Take my life it's all for Thee

Take my life and let it be consecrated
Lord to Thee
Take my life and let it be consecrated
Lord to Thee

Please let us know you are watching the service today. Click here to sign the online fellowship pad. If our You Tube or Facebook live streams are not working, you can always listen in at WDAV.org (89.9) while you wait for us to fix the feed.

Attention Early Risers This Sunday begins our weekly 8:30 a.m. Zoom service. This 30-40 minute long, abbreviated version of our traditional service will include two hymns, a reading, our weekly liturgy and a homily. And you can see members of the church who are in attendance with you! The link to service is here: <https://dcpc-org.zoom.us/j/81068676270>

DCPC Building Closure Due to the modified Mecklenburg County Health Department directive, our offices and Lingle Chapel will be closed until February 28 and all non-essential in-person events are now all virtual. We will be having some in-person events for children and youth, since a return to classrooms is allowed for in the modified directive. Staff will be working from home and responding to emails and voicemails. Thank you for helping us love one another enough to protect each other's health.

Healthy Worship DCPC is committed to honoring the health of our worship leaders and members. As part of your discipleship and Christ's call to love for your neighbor, please wear a mask in public settings if you are medically able!

Lenten Study – Join both Peter Henry and John Ryan two different Lenten studies both starting on Tuesday, February 23.

- The noon study is “An Acceptable Fast,” where we will begin each session by locating the biblical verses in their original context and then exploring a key Lenten theme related to the text. Follow this link to register for the noon study.
- The 7:00 pm study is “Faithful Citizenship,” we will take time to better understand our civic responsibilities as a disciple of Jesus. We will explore the concepts of covenant, community, and the common good. Together and independently, participants will also reflect on how they can further grow as faithful citizens. Follow this link to

register for the 7:00 pm study.

Lent Wednesday Night Devotionals Join us either in-person at 6:00 or on Zoom at 8:30 p.m., (click here), for a 6 week series intitled Encounters with Jesus from the gospel of John. The 6:00 in-person offering is limited to 20 people but you can also go to the 8:30 Zoom by clicking here. Sign up for the in-person devotionals by clicking here or calling the church office.

Lenten Discipline Christians often take on a spiritual discipline during Lent. How about a spiritual discipline? Join members and friends in the Pilgrimage. You can commit to walking or running a certain distance each day or week during Lent. Click here for the distances. Contact Peter Henry if you would like to join a walking or running group to do the challenge together once a week.

Shaping Sermons Members and friends of DCPC are invited to join the preachers and others in examining the biblical texts we use for preaching. Every Monday from 11:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. the Preacher's Workshop Bible study looks at the preaching text for the upcoming Sunday. You do NOT need to be a biblical expert to join. We Still Collect Food and Hygiene Items When you are at the store, consider picking up a few extra items for our neighbors in need and drop them in the bins on the Congregation House porch. Any non-perishable food items are welcome. Here is a list of their immediate needs: Cereal, Fruit Cups, Applesauce Cups, Granola Bars, Disposable Masks, Nitrile Gloves, Printer Paper, Chips, Extra Virgin Olive Oil, Trail Mix, Clothes Washing Pods, Parmesan Cheese. Hygiene Items are taken to Ada Jenkins: Items needed are toilet tissue, shampoo, shaving razors/cream, deodorant, and soap.

Coat Drive Continues If you would like to provide a new or gently used coat for someone in need contact Robert Alexander at ralexander@dcpc.org and arrange for a pick up. These will be delivered to Lydia's Loft in Huntersville.

Community Mission Follow-Up Many know of our Minister's Discretionary Fund which is used to help those in our community with immediate needs like food, rent, and utility assistance. We often work in tandem with our other mission partners but do not always have a way to know how our neighbors are doing after we have helped them. We are looking for 6-8 individuals who would be willing to undergo a short training session with Pastor Robert and then reach out to those neighbors we have assisted to provide an additional level of support and care. If you are interested in learning more about this ministry, please contact Robert at ralexander@dcpc.org.

Pastoral Care and Coverage is a Team Effort At DCPC we are blessed to have five ordained clergy on staff, all of whom have received training and have a wide variety of experiences in pastoral care. This means that when a member or friend of DCPC reaches out for pastoral care or pastoral services, we always have someone available to assist. In fact, having such a large group of clergy means that we get to organize our care in ways that support members, make best use of staff time and honor relationships. Click here for a few things to know about pastoral care at DCPC.

DCPC Stephen Ministers are Here for You We are all living in a very different world in 2021. We find ourselves in a thicket of problems: COVID-19, financial struggles, job loss, increased parental responsibility. Throughout it all, we have less access to our friends and limited contact with our loved ones. There is a path to help you move forward through the confusion and isolation. Sometimes listening is what we truly need to help process our range of emotions. Fully trained Stephen Ministers at DCPC are ready to offer Christ centered caring. We cannot fix your problems, but we can provide tangible evidence of God's love through caring. Strict confidentiality in a one on- one relationship can give you a place to talk and be heard. If you are in need of a Stephen minister, please visit DCPC.org and click on the links to Stephen Ministry, speak to one of our DCPC pastors (704-892-5641) or call Rosemary Raynal, Stephen Leader (678-429-8480).
